

K-LOVE is a great source of local community events. he only station that I listen to is K-LOVE and if you take it away there will be a great loss of family friendly music and information. I truly believe that K-LOVE does a tremendous service to me and my community and the station has the public interest at heart.